The Revenue Authorities port that the deceased left no properties either moveal or immoveable. It is also said that there are no rela who can support the widow and her large family.

said to be 45 years. Being unable to eke out her livelihood by hard manual labour, she opened a small shop in a hamlet in Alipuram. The Capital of her business is said to be less than Rs.5/- and the profits accruing from it are said to be hardly ~~Rs.2~~ Rs.2/- per month. She has no debts but she is reported to have no other source of income except the petty shop. The Revenue authorities state that here is a deserving case for the grant of gratuity on compassionate grounds.

Compassionate gratuity is not ordinarily sanctioned in a case of this type, vide rule 6 (1) d and e of the compassionate gratuity rules in G.O.No.120 Finance (Pension) dated 22-7-32, However, in view of the very destitute condition of the widow and her tender aged minor children who have to be brought up I recommend that the Government may be pleased to grant Rs.200/- on compassionate grounds.

The following records are submitted.

1. Widow's petition.
2. Revenue authorities report.
3. The defaulter sheet of the deceased.
4. Descriptive roll of the petitioner
5. Application for pension (1st sheet)

No service book is said to have been maintained in the case of the deceased.

Sir,

I, Kamatchiamma widow of the Vilwan Warder Raja ch Ali-peram Pumping Station, beg to submit these few lines for favorable and Sympathetic Consideration.

I beg to state that my above husband was suffering from fever only for 4 days and died at Aliperam on Wednesday early morning at about 3. on the 22nd March 1939.

In this Connection, I beg to bring to your kind Consideration that my husband died in a distant place on duty, outside the Bellary Municipal limits.

There were no caste people in the village of Aliperam to see that the dead body was buried properly.

As the man died prematurely after 17 years' service in all, leaving after him 6 children with, no indebtedness of Rs 300/- nearly, I therefore request the favour of Consideration of my case for a Compassionate gratuity. The children are 6 in number. Of these, the eldest daughter was given away in marriage at Anantapur and the rest are still minors viz:-

Boys of 11 + 9 + 2 years age daughters 7 + 5 years.

For which act of kindness, I shall ever be grateful.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant
